

Who is God? What does God think of me? How can God be good? The Bible is so confusing, how do I make sense of it? More questions than answers? More doubts than certainties? Who is God? What does God think of me? How can God be good? The Bible is so confusing, how do I make sense of it?
What is Salvation and who receives it? More questions than answers? More doubts than certainties? Who is God? What does God

You are not alone in your questions.
Don't be alone in searching for answers.

Join Us for "Tough Questions of Faith"
11:00 a.m. Worship

January 10: Who Is God?

January 17: Who am I to God?

January 24: How can God be good?

January 31: What do we do with the Bible?

February 7: Salvation: What is it,
Who receives it?

Amity

Believe . . . Belong . . . Become . . .

Pastor's Message, January 2010

Madeleine L'Engle writes in Two Part Invention, "The questions worth asking are not answerable. Could we be fascinated by a maker who was completely explained and understood? The mystery is tremendous and the fascination that keeps me returning to the questions affirms that they are worth asking, and that any God worth believing in is the God not only of the immensities of the galaxies I rejoice in at night when I walk the dogs, but also the God of love who cares about the suffering of us human beings and is here, with us, for us, in our pain and in our joy."

And so as we enter 2010 and the sermon series, Tough Questions About Faith, let us remember the above:

- Questions are not a sign of weak faith, but a sign of a fascination with a God who is beyond our comprehension;
- We will not be able to answer all our questions, but we ponder and seek, trusting God to lead and reveal to us God's amazing love, grace and mercy; and finally;
- May our inability to wrap our minds fully around God and who God is be our comfort and assurance for we worship a God beyond our wildest imagination and understanding.

What joy it is for me to journey together with such a faithful congregation. I cherish you all so much and thank God for you daily. Many blessings,

Tuck

AMITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

825 N. Estes Drive • Chapel Hill, NC 27514

919-967-7546 • amityumc.org

Rev. Tuck Taylor, Pastor